ABSTRACT

Marilyn Shrude, Committee Chair

The Sacrifice of Isaac is a micro-opera in one act scored for soprano, mezzo-soprano, baritone, and piano. The story is based on the events of the Biblical story found in Genesis 22, in which Abraham (baritone), the ancestor of the people of Israel, is commanded by God to sacrifice his son, Isaac (mezzo-soprano), as a burnt offering. Just as Abraham is about to cut Isaac's throat, an Angel (soprano) appears and stops the sacrifice. The libretto is largely adapted from the Biblical text and includes an original poem by Skyler Cash for Abraham's aria. The Sacrifice of Isaac aims to capture the unspoken emotions of this highly dramatic and controversial story while retaining theological accuracy, highlighting the faith-filled obedience of Abraham and the eternal faithfulness of God.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This project would not be possible without the support and effort of many people. First of all, I would like to thank my wife, Jacy, who has been my most steadfast friend and supporter. Without her, I would not be doing what I love. I want to thank Skyler Cash for collaborating with me on the libretto and for providing a beautiful text for Abraham's aria; Dr. Marilyn Shrude for guiding and mentoring me throughout the process; Carolyn Anderson for her strong leadership and commitment to bringing the BGSU MicroOperas to fruition; Dr. Ryan Ebright and Dr. Kevin Bylsma for sharing their guidance and expertise; Kirsten Kidd for directing; Kyle Wendling for his conducting; Christina Worcester, Sydney Shook, Zach Sanford, and Abigail Petersen for making the music and drama come to life; and finally the LORD Jesus Christ, who saved me and through whom all things are possible.

SET AND PROPS

The scene is set at the summit of a mountain. There are no set requirements. Abraham carries a knife and a stone resembling flint. Isaac enters with a bundle of firewood, bound with rope, on his shoulders.

SYNOPSIS

Abraham and Isaac arrive at the summit of a mountain in Moriah to make sacrifices to God. Abraham has received a command from God to offer Isaac, his son, as a sacrifice. Isaac wonders about the absence of a lamb for the sacrifice, but Abraham assures him that God will provide the lamb Himself. While Isaac lays the wood for the fire, Abraham prays and struggles with what he is about to do. When Abraham is about to slaughter Isaac, an angel from God intervenes, affirms his faith, and recounts God's promises to make him the father of a great nation by which all people will be blessed. The angel points out a lamb caught in a thicket, God's own provision, before leaving Abraham in wonder. As Isaac calls out, Abraham unbinds him and attempts to comfort him.

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff, labeled 'Isc.', is in treble clef and contains the lyrics 'ther' with a long horizontal line underneath. The middle staff, labeled 'Abr.', is in bass clef and contains the lyrics 'I love you' repeated three times with long horizontal lines underneath. The bottom staff, labeled 'Pno.', is a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. It features piano accompaniment with various chords and melodic lines. A dynamic marking of ppp is present above the piano staff. At the bottom left, there is a marking '(Seq.)' with a line extending to the right. A vertical wavy line with a downward-pointing arrow is located at the end of the piano staff.
